

FAUX SHOWS 2

Faux Shows 2

In the second installment of Faux Shows, we recreated your average streaming option.

As you wind down at the end of the day and open a go-to streaming platform, we're all faced with the difficult task of choosing what we want to watch. Our previews feature generic genres we've all learnt to expect. Stereotypical characters we all love, "originals" and binge-worthy series we've spent all weekend watching.

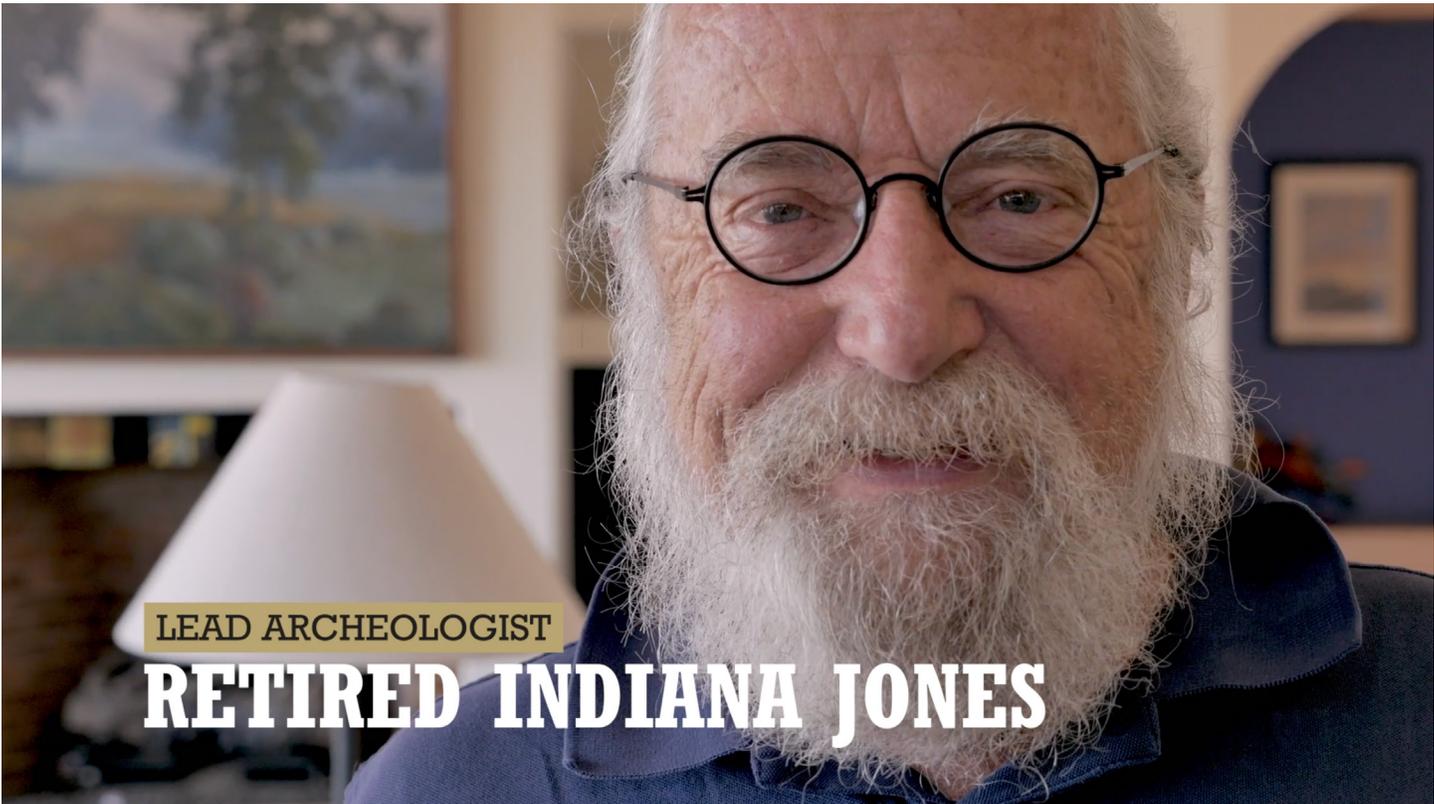

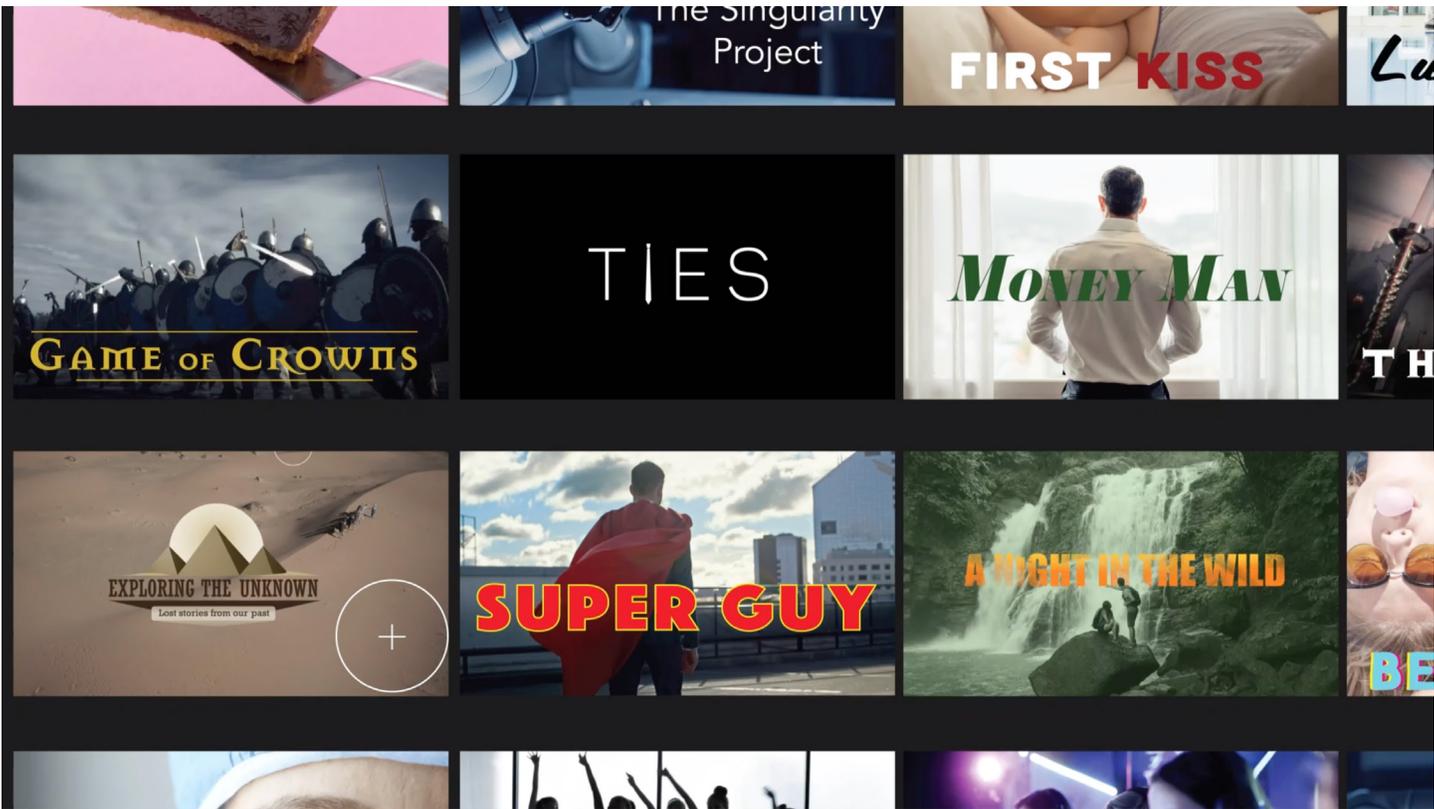

Regular network programming and commercials are a thing of the past. Faux Shows 2 is an accurate modern representation of how we sift through previews and consume series and films. We stream everything from cartoons for children to the newest award-winning masterpieces.

Faux Shows 2 was produced with TV-worthy stock footage from Dissolve.
